Season Subscriber Benefits

Season Passes for Adults are $99 - that's a mere $33 a show!

Buy before we announce the musical on April 15 and get the season for only $89!

Youth Passes are $80 (aged 6-25).

Passes are good for one ticket to each of the three summer plays.

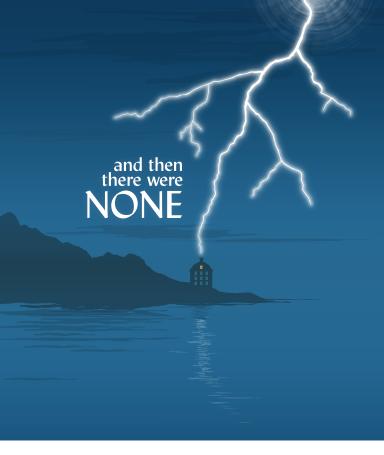

Patrons who purchase a Season Pass receive a passcode that can then be redeemed for tickets. This is a two-step process.

SEASON PASS BENEFITS

- Best Seats at the Best Prices: Season tickets are 20% off the price of single tickets! And season ticket holders get to select their seats before single tickets go on sale in April.
- Pick Dates Now or Later: When you purchase a season pass you receive a passcode that allows you to select seats now or later. Set up your seats at your convenience!
- Free Ticket Exchanges: Season ticket holders can exchange tickets, free of charge, for another performance of the same show. You can log in and do this yourself, or just call the box office up to two hours before your selected performance.
- Lost Your Tickets? Call or stop by the box office. We can replace lost tickets quickly and at no charge, right up until the time of performance.
- Leave Your Tickets with Us: If you have a busy schedule and are worried you will forget your tickets, choose to have them at Will Call and pick them up when you arrive at the show.
- First time season subscriber? Check in at the box office during the first show for a special gift!

(All sales are final and non-refundable.)

And Then There Were None

By Agatha Christie
Directed by David Smith-English

June 27- July 21, 2024

Preview June 27, Opening night June 28

Ten strangers are summoned to a remote island. All the guests have in common is a wicked past that seals their fate. As people begin to die, they realize the murderer must be among them. Will they discover who it is in time to save themselves? First presented at St James' Theatre in London on November 17, 1943. The play opened on Broadway at the Broadhurst Theatre in New York City on June 27, 1944. It was a smash hit on both Broadway and in the West End.

"A perfect combination of thriller and detective story, this much-copied plot is Christie's greatest technical achievement." — The Guardian

The Musical That Shall Not Be Named (until April 15)

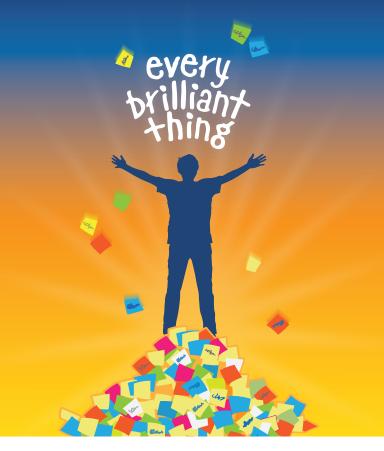

Directed by Karlyn Love (Man of La Mancha)

August 1-25, 2024

Preview August 1, Opening night August 3

Of course, that isn't the actual name of the show. Due to a national tour of the production that closes in Eugene on April 14, we can't announce the title until the next day. But you trust us, right? You loved Man of La Mancha, The Sound of Music, and everyone's all time favorite, Fiddler on the Roof. What we can tell you is the show is from the Golden Age of American Musical Theatre and just as famous, with a great script and terrific songs that you know well. Take a chance — you won't be disappointed!

"A beloved musical from another era can keep on kicking." — Vulture

Every Brilliant Thing

By Duncan Macmillan With Jonny Donahoe Directed by David Smith-En

Directed by David Smith-English and Jayson Shanafelt Starring Jayson Shanafelt

September 5-29, 2024

Preview September 5, Opening night September 6

"Ice cream." "Water fights." "Staying up past your bedtime and being allowed to watch TV." A boy's handwritten list to cheer up his despondent mother becomes a surprisingly funny and poignant ode to humanity. This one-person show starring Jayson Shanafelt (One Man Two Guvnors, The Complete Works of William Shakespeare, Abridged, Harvey) takes audiences on a transcendent and tender coming-of-age journey that reminds us to pay attention to life's smallest joys — and to each other. With lots of audience participation, each performance is an entirely different experience. Come and enjoy! And then, enjoy again!

"A heart-wrenching, hilarious play ..." — The Guardian (UK)

"Every Brilliant Thing is, well, brilliant." — Theatrely

"Captivating." — Broadway World
